My dear Miss Fleming:-

I certainly do wish you were going to be up in this country during the holidays. We are expecting a big "Mountain" time, and just for the change, believe you would enjoy it. We are going to have a fancy dress ball on the night of the 30th. Well I know you are going to have a fine time. Write and tell me all about it, won't you? I met two girls here last week, in fact they only left yesterday, who went to Hall's last winter and both of them knew Louise Pratt, and thought she was just fine, but when I asked them about Miss Thomas, they threw up their hands and said "Excuse me". They also met George Pratt, and liked him ever so much. We have some fine girls to visit this place and for the past six weeks it has been one continuous round of card parties, dances, and hay-rides.

Now that they have all gone, it begins to get dead again—

Wasn't it awful about Charlie Fishburn? I have had several letters from him since he got into the terrible trouble— He is very bright and thinks he is going to get out all ok. I certainly do hope he will—

I heard today that George Hirston was dead— Don't know any of the particulars about his death—

Did you know Ernest Fishburn was married? He got married last month— It was a very quiet affair on account of Charlie's affliction. Married a Miss Davenport of Roanoke—

Now please sit down and write me a real long letter—

Sincerely
Dorothy

Letter :-

Say Harry Palmer has just come in (we room together) and says to tell you to tell "Miss" Stockton, I forget her first name, lots of nice things for him - While as a matter of fact you don't know Docx, or Harry as I call him, at the same time he is a fine fellow <sup>and</sup> if you come up to Virginia next summer I want you to know him - He is just like his brother John, whom you know - He certainly can play and sing - He is "Crazy" about your friend young Miss Stockton - Don't tell her that he doesn't know her first name -

He plays and sings "As long as the Congo" You know what that makes me think of, don't you - Good night -
Dooley
